

IMPACT BY THE NUMBERS FOR DELAWARE

Grants to Delaware Organizations and Individuals from Fiscal Years 2019 through 2023 – $8,169,985

Total Number of Awards – 32

Award Highlights:

- The University of Delaware will provide six stipends per year for three years for students in the Winterthur/University of Delaware Program in Art Conservation. These NEH Fellows will also have additional outreach and community engagement responsibilities.
- Professor Deborah Steinberger at University of Delaware is researching and translating four early modern French periodical stories from Le Mercure Galant. She will also develop a translation apparatus for the anthology.

NEH also provides annual funding to Delaware Humanities, the designated humanities council in the state, to support a wide array of public programming.

Recent Delaware Humanities Highlights:

- "The Voices of Delaware's Black History," a videos series exploring the stories of four Black Delawareans, premiered on WHYYPBS, was screened at Greater Harrington Museum, and was distributed to schools statewide. The WHYYPBS videos were aired combined total of 161 times, to a viewership of 2,293,992 people.
- "Let's Talk About Environmental Justice" is a DIY program toolkit that allows host organizations to educate audiences on how environmental harms and inequalities affect Delaware communities. 50 toolkits featuring background information, a PowerPoint presentation and discussion guide, an activity, and a resource list, are being distributed to community organizations across Delaware.

Have questions or want more information? Reach out to us at Congressional@neh.gov.