

IMPACT BY THE NUMBERS FOR PUERTO RICO

Grants to Puerto Rico Organizations and Individuals from Fiscal Years 2019 through 2023 – $8,089,084

Total Number of Awards – 48

Award Highlights:

- The University of Puerto Rico, Cayey University College, received an NEH grant to record oral histories with three community-based organizations to document and explore community response and resilience after hurricanes and other climate-related disasters.
- The University of Puerto Rico, Mayaguez, received an NEH grant to create a new undergraduate certificate in media studies that focuses on the themes of power and representation.

NEH also provides annual funding to Fundación Puertorriqueña de las Humanidades \(FPH\), the designated humanities council in the jurisdiction, to support a wide array of public programming.

Recent FPH Highlights:

- Escenas: Radiografías artísticas de manifestaciones de violencia y de paz.* This series of workshops trains educators, managers, and community facilitators in using theater techniques to assist violence prevention, human rights, communication, consensus decision making, and peace building.
- Música infantil puertorriqueña.** This award to a music education non-profit preserved a historic collection of songs published in two volumes (1901 & 1904) and taught in schools. Unavailable to teachers for decades, the project's website offers free access to song lyrics, music tracks, and an educator's guide.

*Scenes: Artistic radiographies of manifestations of violence and peace.

***Children's Music of Puerto Rico*

Have questions or want more information? Reach out to us at Congressional@neh.gov.